Rehearsals are going really well for this hilariously funny production. The shows usual suspects will be on hand delivering the old gags which are always the best. How does René get away with the constant groping of Maria and Yvette? Will his long suffering wife Edith, ever discover his philandering ways? Will the Germans have him shot or will they turn a blind eye while the girls offer their services. Can the British airmen avoid detection and will Michelle of the resistance manage to blow up the Café along with the Germans? Will Leclerc ever master a decent disguise or will Herr Flic find him out? Finally, will Police Officer Crabtree ever master the French language?

All will be revealed at Lagoa Auditorium 12th, 13th and 14th the May at 8pm sharp. Tickets 96 9631329 or 91 7775245 and

The Algarvean's Annual General Meeting Sunday, 25th April, 2010

Our Annual General Meeting has been arranged to take place on Sunday 25th April, 2010 at Valentino's Restaurant in Praia da Luz. Please arrive for registration from 12:30, lunch will be served from 1:00 and the AGM will take place afterwards at 2:30 p.m. If you would like to have lunch then please make your reservation with Nikki Weidjom, her mobile is 917 776 245 or you can send her an e-mail on nikki.luz@hotmail.com. Please remember to bring your membership card with you to the AGM. You should have received all the details from Nikki, if not then contact her at the telephone number above.

Directions to VALENTINO'S RESTAURANT, Luz

NIKKI'S GREAT NIGHT OUT

I had a fabulous night in Lisbon last month with a good friend, watching a favourite band of mine from way back!! Spandau Ballet reformed in 2009 and who have been touring with their 'Reformation Tour' and played at the Pavilhão Atlantico for 2 hours. We were a relatively small crowd, 2000, but the band gave us a brilliant show singing all the old faves, True, Gold, To cut a long story short and some new songs too. The boys were really energetic, and all still had that 'charm' they had back in the 80's, in fact the sax player has really turned into a hunk!! It brought back memories of dancing till the sun came up in one of the discos in Praia da Rocha, something I tell my kids not to do!!! Lisbon has it's fair share of great concerts and in the summer down here in the Algarve I'm sure we'll be very well entertained with the various artists... see you there.

QUIZ NIGHT

If you fancy a social night out with the Algarvean's then block off the 7th May as Nikki is going to organize a quiz night in Silves. More details will be sent around the middle of April.

AND FINALLY

Are you like me, and already sick to death of the wall to wall coverage of the forthcoming General Election coverage on British TV? We all have an opinion about our current batch of political representatives but I see it as a duty to vote, in memory of all those that made the ultimate sacrifice to give us the right to vote and maintain our freedom and democracy, which these days is taken for granted by many. In case you are not aware, if you have lived abroad for less than 15 years you are still eligible to vote at your last UK address provided you were on the electoral register at that address. You can get all the forms on line and then nominate a proxy voter at: <http://www.electoralcommission.org.uk/elections/voter-registration> and now on a lighter note;

I must go down to the sea again,
to the lonely sea and sky.
I left my socks and knickers there,
I wonder if they're dry.
